Kansas City @ Denver 11/01 01:11 PM
Each of the last seven meetings between the Broncos and Chiefs have stayed under the total. Kansas City had won eight-straight in Denver before Sean Payton arrived for the Broncos in 2023, with Denver winning-and-covering all three as series host since.

New England @ Miami 11/01 01:11 PM
New England won-and-covered both meetings last season with both of those contests going over the total. Prior to last year's sweep, the Dolphins had won seven of the previous eight meetings in this AFC East matchup. New England's last four games have all gone over the total.

LA Chargers @ LA Rams 11/01 01:11 PM
The Chargers' recent downturn is extraordinary, losing their last nine outright since late last December, and just 0-8-1 vs. the spread in those games. The Bolts are also currently on an 11-1 "under" run since late last season.

Arizona @ Dallas 11/01 10:11 AM
The Cardinals are 8-1 straight-up and against the spread over the last nine meetings in this regional NFC matchup. Arizona earned a 27-17 road win in Dallas as a 3.5-point road 'dog last season.

Minnesota @ Detroit 11/01 10:11 AM
The Vikings have scored an average of 17.2 points per game over their last five wins. All five of those contests stayed under the total.

Las Vegas @ NY Jets 11/01 10:11 AM
Since beating the Patriots in Week 1 last season, the Raiders have gone 0-4 straight-up and against the spread in their last four trips to the Eastern Time Zone.

Cleveland @ Pittsburgh 11/01 10:11 AM
The home team has covered the spread in each of the last ten meetings in this AFC North rivalry.

Atlanta @ Tampa Bay 11/01 10:11 AM
Home field advantage hasn't meant too much in this NFC South matchup over the last three seasons. The road team has won five of the last six meetings, and the lone home win (Atlanta in October 2024) required overtime to get there.

Indianapolis @ Jacksonville 11/01 10:11 AM
Jacksonville is 5-1 straight-up and against the spread over the last six meetings, and Indianapolis' lone win (Week 18 of the 2024-25 season) required overtime to get there. Six of the last seven meetings have gone over the total, with the lone "under" being the last meeting in December of last year.

Carolina @ Green Bay 10/29 05:10 PM
Dating back to last season, the under is 8-1 in the Panthers' last nine road games.
