Tennessee is on a heater, covering seven straight while winning six of seven, and they were without the services of starting QB Ryan Tannehill in two of those. Tannehill returned to action with 255 YP and a pair of TDs against the Broncos Sunday, rallying the Titans from a 10-0 deficit to a 17-10 victory as all-NFL RB Derrick Henry was held to just 53 YR by the Denver defense. Tennessee has some injury issues on the offensive line, which contributed to Henry's second-lowest output of the season. The Packers snapped their five-game losing streak by rallying from being down 28-14 in the fourth quarter to force OT and then take a 31-28 decision that was aided by some dubious decisions by Cowboy HC Mike McCarthy. Green Bay has been leaning heavily on the running game itself lately, rushing 95 times for 521 yards (5.5 ypc) in the last three games, partially due to the issues between Aaron Rodgers and his new receiving corps. It could be tough going the land route in this one, as the Titan defense has given up just 55 ypg rushing and 2.8 ypc over the past six games. Packers have dropped three straight this season laying points at Lambeau after going 15-5 as home chalk, but see this one as a low-scoring, grind-it-out type of game and Tannehill shook off the rust and should make the Packer defense, which misses key piece Rashan Gary, think before ganging up on Henry.

Play Tennessee and the Under.

#109 Kansas City Chiefs (-1.5) vs #110 Philadelphia Eagles (Total 49.5)

Recent Meetings: These teams met in Super Bowl 57 at State Farm Stadium in Glendale, Arizona with Kansas City earning a 38-35 win. The Chiefs closed as a one-point 'dog in that contest. Philadelphia jumped out to a 10-point lead at halftime, but Kansas City out-scored Philadelphia 24-11 in the second half with Harrison Butker hitting the game-winning field goal with eight seconds remaining. The Eagles out-gained the Chiefs by 77 yards, held a 25-21 edge in first downs and held a ten-minute advantage in time of possession. The lone turnover in the game resulted in a 36-yard fumble return for a touchdown by the Chiefs' defense. Jalen Hurts went 27-for-38 with 304 passing yards with four touchdowns, but he was responsible for that fumble which proved to be pivotal in the final result.

They met again in the regular season last year with Philadelphia earning a small measure of revenge in a game with the opposite script of the Super Bowl. Philadelphia picked up the 21-17 road win in Kansas City as a 2.5-point 'dog, but Kansas City was the team that controlled the box score and lost. The Chiefs out-gained the Eagles by 98 yards and held a 23-16 edge in first downs, but turned the ball over three times. Mahomes threw an interception in the Eagles' end zone, then Travis Kelce fumbled on the Eagles' nine-yard-line.

Kansas City in the Postseason: This will be the Chiefs' fifth Super Bowl appearance in the Andy Reid-Patrick Mahomes era. Kansas City has won-and-covered three of the previous four, including a win over the Eagles in 2023. Ironically, the game that they lost - 2021 vs Tampa Bay - was the game where they were the biggest favorite (-3.5). This will be Andy Reid's sixth Super Bowl appearance after previously taking the Eagles to Super Bowl 39 where they fell to the Carolina Panthers. The Chiefs are 8-0 straight-up and against the spread in the playoffs when listed as an underdog or a favorite of less than a field goal.

Philadelphia in the Postseason: Philadelphia is making its third Super Bowl appearance in the last eight years. The Doug Pederson-led Eagles took down Tom Brady in 2018, and Nick Sirianni is looking for his first trophy after falling to Kansas City two years ago. The 55 points that the Eagles scored in the NFC Championship Game was the most in conference championship history. Per Evan Abrams, teams that scored 40+ points in the conference championship round have gone 3-7 straight-up in the Super Bowl.

Kansas City Trends: The Chiefs went 9-10 against the spread this season. Six of Kansas City's last eight games have stayed under the total. In games with a closing point spread near a pick'em (from -3 to +3), Kansas City went 5-1 straight-up and against the spread. When receiving more than a traditional week's rest, the Chiefs are 30-4 straight-up since 2019 under Patrick Mahomes.

Philadelphia Trends: Philadelphia went 13-7 against the spread this season. Pop quiz! How many road games have the Eagles played since December 1? One! Seven of the Eagles' last eight games have been played at home. Philadelphia's lone road game was at Washington in Week 16 when Jalen Hurts was knocked out at the beginning of the game. The Eagles went 7-2 against the spread away from home this season, including a win-and-cover in the Caesars Superdome against the Saints in Week 3. Both Saquon Barkley and Cooper DeJean will both celebrate their birthdays on Super Bowl Sunday.

Super Bowl Notes: The favorite has won 36 of the previous 58 Super Bowls, but they are just 27-29-2 against the spread. Underdogs have gone 10-7 straight-up, 12-5 against the number over the last 17 years and 'dogs have covered each of the last four years.

In the last 16 years, there has only been one instance where the favorite has won the game, but did not cover the spread: Super Bowl 56 when the Rams won by three, but did not cover as a four-point favorite against the Bengals.

Kansas City has not had a halftime lead in any of its four previous Super Bowls. The Chiefs trailed against the Eagles, 49ers and Bucs in their last three trips, and were tied 10-10 with San Francisco in Super Bowl 54. The team that scored first lost all four of those games that the Chiefs were involved in.

Seven of the last eight Super Bowls did not feature a score in the first six minutes.

Six of the last seven Super Bowls have not had a defensive or special teams touchdown. The lone exception is Kansas City's fumble return for a touchdown against the Eagles.

Additional Notes: This will be the fifth Super Bowl featuring a head coaching rematch. The head coach who won the first meeting also won the second meeting in all four prior instances. You don't have to look very far for the last occurrence because it was Andy Reid beating Kyle Shanahan for the second time last season.

How important is the bye week for the No. 1 seed? It certainly helps you reach the Super Bowl, but it hasn't been much assistance in the Big Game. Per Evan Abrams, teams that avoided the Wild Card round (Kansas City) are 5-11 straight-up, 2-13-1 against the spread when facing a team that did have to play in the Wild Card round (Philadelphia).

This is a very minor note in the grand scheme of things, but in the Super Bowl, every detail matters. Philadelphia played at the Caesars Superdome in New Orleans earlier this season, so the Eagles have some recent experience in this venue. Kansas City has not played in New Orleans since 2020 when there were no fans allowed in the Superdome because of Covid. So Patrick Mahomes and Co. have never played in this venue in a "real" environment.
