Play of the Day

#975 / 976 Dodgers vs Astros Under 9 Runs (EV) - We've got two starting pitchers that could both use a bounce-back performance on Friday. Lance McCullers Jr. had been pitching well on his road back from injury, but that road took a detour in his last start against the Cubs when he allowed three home runs in 3.1 innings. Prior to that, he was showing plenty of optimistic signs and his strikeout rate is exactly where it was prior to injury. Ben Casparius will be making his first start since June 11 after bouncing between the bullpen and starting rotation. Casparius had been serving as the main guy after Shohei Ohtani's brief starts, but he has performed well in the starting role when given the opportunity. In his last start against the Padres, he allowed one run on three hits in 4.0 innings. He enters Friday in the top-25th percentile among pitchers in expected ERA, average exit velocity, chase rate, whiff rate, walk rate, barrel rate and hard-hit rate. If you enjoy first inning NRFI/YRFI bets, Casparius has not allowed a base runner, let alone a run, in the first inning this season. He will also have the element of unfamiliarity on his side as no one on the Astros' roster has faced the 26-year-old before. Both bullpens should be in good shape heading into this one. Even though the Astros just wrapped up a series at Coors Field, they were able to preserve their key arms through that interleague matchup in Denver. Starting pitcher Hunter Brown threw a gem on Wednesday and the Astros only used two relievers in Thursday's one-run loss. The same is true on the other side as Dustin May went 7.0 innings for the Dodgers yesterday. No one is working on a back-to-back after Tanner Scott and Kirby Yates comfortably preserved the save in yesterday's win over the White Sox.

Prop of the Day

Zach Neto Under 1.5 Runs + Hits + RBI at Toronto (-110) - We're going to look to fade the Angels' shortstop after his 3-for-5 night on Thursday in Atlanta. Neto had been really bad against left-hand pitching this season, hitting .204 with a .214 on-base percentage. In 56 plate appearances against a lefty, Neto has only generated one walk so we probably don't have to worry about him earning a free trip to the base paths. Prior to that three-hit night on Thursday, Neto was 1-for-17 with six strikeouts in his previous six games. Neto has never faced Blue Jays' starter Eric Lauer before, so Lauer will have the element of unfamiliarity on his side.

are on a heater, causing even straight with winning odds of seven, and they were without the services of starting QB Ryan Tannehill. Tannehill returned to action with 250 yard and a pair of TDs against the Browns Sunday, but he gave the Eagles back a 20-10 deficit in a 4th Qtr. The third game was held on just 10th day of the season. The Packers looked like they were going to take the lead from being down both quarters in a 4th Qtr off and then take a 17-10 decision that was ultimately won decisively by Dallas' QB Dak Prescott. The Packers were looking for an on-again-off-again fight back, cutting 10 times for 22 yards (5.5 avg) in the third quarter, partially due to Aaron Rodgers and his team's running game. I could be tough using the back body of this one, as the Titans showed a lot of early yardage and 28 yard on the punt in the game. Packers have dropped three straight this season (last game at Lambeau after a 17-10 drubbing, but see this one as a blow-away, great set of game and "backyard" crowd that will be loud and should make the Packers' week; see game Kattal and Gary, 11/24 before going up on away, week end of the week.
